

The Herald Mail
February 24, 2008

Leadership Washington County

The Washington County Leadership Development Program Inc. announces the following appointments.

Longtime board member Stephanie Stone, executive director of the Community Partnership, recently has been asked to serve on the "Youth Ready By 21" leadership team committee. Chaired by Brenda Donald, secretary of the Maryland Department of Human Resources, this group is tasked with developing a five-year action agenda for Maryland.

Class XX graduate Sam Cool, vice president of Planet Technologies, recently was appointed to the PenMar board.

Class XX graduates Rose Wolters of the Arc and Sid Gale of the Washington County Health System recently were installed as members of the board of directors for the Washington County Commission on Aging.

Terri Shoemaker-Kreit, of Smith, Elliot, Kearns and Co. LLC and current member of Leadership Washington County Class XXI, accepted an invitation to join the board of Children's Village.